silver night

52 3 4

Chapter 1 by kayla eileen one morning two pairs of eyes rested on a fine young girl. One was a murderer the other was a Ex lover, but they both knew she was in danger. this girl had long black hair, light color skin, beautiful blue eyes, and a soft voice. Any one who looked at her fell for her, but she had this one problem that no one knows about but if they did death followed them soon after.

Chapter 2 by Phantim

That was the murderer's doing. He was the shy, stalkerish type. He had fallen for her ages ago, but he was too shy to make the first move. So in the meantime he made sure no one else took her first. The way he did this was simple in a fashion, he killed anyone who got close to her. And with a girl like her, the bodies piled up fast.

Chapter 3 by -

Now the Ex lover, because he had been saved from the clutches of death. Therefore he was able to shun the girl's attractiveness. But the murderer still did not trust him. The two were always at odds with one another. They constantly struggled with restraining themselves from harming each other. But today only won was still living at the end of the day.
